Customers may request a refund within 30 calendar days of the original purchase date.

The customer must provide the registered email address and order reference. A refund may be denied when the purchase is outside the eligible period.

Digital products are eligible for a refund when a verified technical issue prevents normal use and support cannot resolve the issue.

Customers submit a refund request through the support portal. Support verifies the order and eligibility before approval.

Approved refunds are returned to the original payment method. Processing normally takes 3 to 5 business days after approval.

If the original payment method is unavailable, support may request an alternate verified payment method.
